

Valley View Intermediate Parent Information Packet 2014-2015

Parental Involvement:

Valley View Intermediate welcomes all parents, grandparent and guardians to participate in school activities. Valley View Intermediate believes that all students can learn and that parents and the community are an important part of creating a culture of learning. Parents as well as other members from the community will act as partners in the life-long learning process for all students.

Parent Responsibilities:

Parents play an important role in every child's education. Parents are to ensure that students attend school each day, arrive on time and ready to learn. Review homework assignments and offer assistance when needed. Also, parents should show interest in the child's education by attending school conferences, supporting school activities and communicating with the school.

Student Responsibilities:

Students play an important role in reaching his or her full academic potential by arriving at school and attending class each day. Students must show respect all other students, teachers and staff while attending school. Students must obey all classroom rules and participate in class lessons and complete homework to ensure full academic success.

Teacher Responsibilities:

Teachers always play an important role in Valley View students reaching his or her full potential. Teachers must set high instructional standards for every student, teach effective study skills and strategies to ensure retention of learning. Teachers are to be committed to developing instruction in the classroom that challenges student learning. Also, teachers are to establish communication with parents and create a warm atmosphere for participation in school and class activities.

Parent Volunteers:

The school will encourage parents in the following types of roles and activities to increase their involvement and support for student learning:
